The Chanler at Cliff Walk

Craving a cliffside escape with a dash of history? Dive into The Chanler at Cliff Walk in Newport, RI, once the summer haven of Congressman John Winthrop Chanler. Here, 20 opulent rooms with fireplaces await or level up with a Garden or Ocean Villa featuring private outdoor entrances.

For dining, delight in modern delicacies, blind tastings, and wine pairings recognized by Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence, at Cara with panoramic ocean views, or sit back and enjoy views of Easton's Bay with prix fixe menus at The Café. Step back in time at The Lounge with rich upholstery and custom wallpaper to sip vintage spirits, bespoke cocktails, and an extensive wine collection. Don't miss the seasonal Apple Cider Bar for a New England treat open on weekends now through November 19 where guests can savor Rose Hill Heirloom apple ciders and liqueur-infused options.
