

With cooler weather comes the desire to snuggle up indoors with a crackling fireplace, a hot drink and good company. But don't think traveling to a colder destination means sacrificing time by a fireplace. These five hotels across the world boast stunning fireplaces that are not only beautiful but also warm and inviting, making for the perfect winter getaway for those craving a cozy night in.

Often called America's most romantic hotel, The Chanler at Cliff Walk looks like a property straight out of HBO's The Gilded Age. The Chanler sits along Newport's famous Cliff Walk, boasting views of the Atlantic across 20 unique accommodations, each designed according to a specific theme or historical period. The best part? Rooms come with their own fireplace. And when you're away from your room and elsewhere in the hotel, you'll still be able to enjoy the crackling of a good fire with fireplaces in the lobby, lounge, café and even outdoor area. The Chanler even features a dedicated hot chocolate bar in winter to complement some outdoor time by the fire.
