

The 15 Best Mother-Daughter Trips to Take Together

Celebrate mom more than once a year with these curated trips!

Mother's Day is just around the corner, so it's time to consider the best ways to commemorate the special occasion. We know, because Harvard tells us, that there are legitimate health benefits, like a decreased chance of heart disease and lower stress, from strong relationship ties. We also know that experiences, like travel, make the best gifts. So why not improve your health while gifting mom an unforgettable trip? It's a win-win situation, at least from our POV.

For the best mother-daughter trips in the U.S. and beyond, we tapped two seasoned travel veterans: Brianna Glenn, owner and travel designer at Milk+ Honey Travels, and Abbie Synan, full-time globetrotting writer and travel advisor for Fora. Get ready to add to your wander list with these luxurious destinations. Whether the two of you are nature lovers, shopping enthusiasts, wine aficionados, or professional beachgoers, you're sure to find a mother-daughter trip idea that's perfect for you. Get ready to relax, bond, and make new memories together!

JON LOVETTE // GETTY IMAGES

Newport, Rhode Island

Take to the New England seaside with a breathtaking beach trip to Newport, Rhode Island. Synan recommends the so-called "City by the Sea" and "Queen of Summer Resorts," adding, "With the picturesque oceanfront architecture, a weekend in Newport is just the way to experience the historic homes along the coastline. And, if you time your vacation for Mother's Day weekend, there's no better way to celebrate than by reserving a table for Mother's Day brunch at the Chanler, complete with unmatched views of the manicured gardens overlooking the Atlantic Ocean."

WHERE TO STAY: THE CHANLER AT CLIFF WALK